

Transforming the lives of those around you is a pretty great job perk.

Being a part of one of the world's most respected professions* is just icing on the cake.

Choosing a profession that provides an opportunity to impact those around you can be transforming. As a coordinator, your contributions to the field of family medicine make that impact even greater.

Whether you're working within a medical school or residency program, you are an indispensable member of one of the world's most respected professions.*

A coordinator membership in the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine (STFM) provides you with the chance to collaborate with family medicine coordinators throughout the world.

Coordinator membership benefits include:

- A chance to network with family medicine coordinators from around the world and gain new perspectives into one of medicine's most rewarding professions
- Access to the industry's leading family medicine education conferences and resources
- Opportunities to network and engage in projects in the STFM Coordinator Collaborative
- Subscriptions to Family Medicine, Annals of Family Medicine, PRIMER, and the Messenger, STFM's e-newsletter
- Unique leadership opportunities
