

Conference on Medical Student Education

Submission Category: Lecture

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

Session Time: 30 minutes

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description.

Abstract (Max Length: 1500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Does this submission include presenters from two or more distinct institutions (Multi-institutional)?*

Yes/No

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

Are presenters from two or more distinct professions (interprofessional)? *

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

Outline of format, including anticipated time for each element. Please be specific regarding the plan for audience engagement. * (Character Limit: 2500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*

Submission Category: Seminar

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

Session Time: 60 minutes

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description.

Abstract (Max Length: 1500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Does this submission include presenters from two or more distinct institutions (Multi-institutional)?*

Yes/No

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

Are presenters from two or more distinct professions (interprofessional)? *

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

Outline of format, including anticipated time for each element. Please be specific regarding the plan for audience engagement. * (Character Limit: 2500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*

Category: Scholarly Topic Roundtable Discussion

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description.

Abstract (Max Length: 1500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Does this submission include presenters from two or more distinct institutions (Multi-institutional)?*

Yes/No

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

Are presenters from two or more distinct professions (interprofessional)? *

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*

Category: Symposia

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

Session Time: 60 minutes

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description.

Abstract (Max Length: 1500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Symposia presenters MUST be from multiple institutions. If not, submit to the Seminar category. Does the submission include presenters from two or more distinct institutions?*

Yes/No

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

Are presenters from two or more distinct professions (interprofessional)? *

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

Outline of format, including anticipated time for each element. Please be specific regarding the plan for audience engagement. * (Character Limit: 2500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*

Category: Workshop

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

Session Time: 90 minutes

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description.

Abstract (Max Length: 1500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Does this submission include presenters from two or more distinct institutions (Multi-institutional)?*

Yes/No

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

Are presenters from two or more distinct professions (interprofessional)? *

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

Outline of format, including anticipated time for each element. Please be specific regarding the plan for audience engagement. * (Character Limit: 2500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*

Category: Preconference Workshop

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

Session Time: 4-8 hours

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description.

Abstract (Max Length: 1500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Does this submission include presenters from two or more distinct institutions (Multi-institutional)?*

Yes/No

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

Are presenters from two or more distinct professions (interprofessional)? *

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

Outline of format, including anticipated time for each element. Please be specific regarding the plan for audience engagement. * (Character Limit: 2500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*

Category: Preconference Workshop

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

Session Time: 4-8 hours

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description.

Abstract (Max Length: 1500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Does this submission include presenters from two or more distinct institutions (Multi-institutional)?*

Yes/No

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

Are presenters from two or more distinct professions (interprofessional)? *

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

Outline of format, including anticipated time for each element. Please be specific regarding the plan for audience engagement. * (Character Limit: 2500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*

Category: Completed Research Project

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

Session Time: 20 minutes

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description. The abstract must include the following:

1. Purpose
2. Methods
3. Results OR Expected Results
4. Conclusions OR Challenges to completion of this project

Abstract (Max Length: 2500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*

Category: In-Progress Research

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

Session Time: 15 minutes

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description. The abstract must include the following:

1. Purpose
2. Methods
3. Results OR Expected Results
4. Anticipated conclusions and projected time to conclusion

Abstract (Max Length: 2500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*

Category: Poster

Title (125 characters - DO NOT use all capitals)

What is this session about? This information will be included in the online session description. The abstract must include the following:

1. Purpose
2. Methods
3. Results OR Expected Results
4. Conclusions OR Challenges to completion of this project

Abstract (Max Length: 2500)

Who is the intended audience for this presentation (select all that apply)?*

- Senior Faculty
- Mid-Career Faculty
- Junior Faculty
- Community Preceptors
- Coordinators
- Residents
- Students

Is a student, resident, or other learner included in the list of presenters?*

Yes/No

List up to five objectives (3 are required; additional objectives are optional):

- Learning objectives should describe behavior in measurable terms, what you would expect learners to take away and implement from this CME activity.
- Each objective must be specific, to the point, and limited to one sentence.
- AVOID these words: Understand, Know, Realize, Be aware of, and Perceive

First Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Second Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Third Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to... *

Fourth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Fifth Objective: On completion of this session the participants should be able to...

Relevance to medical student education * (Character Limit: 1500)

What is new or innovative about the content of this proposed session? * (Character Limit: 1500)

References: (Character Limit: 1500)

*Questions with a red * must be answered for the submission to be considered complete.*