NEWS AND PUBLICATIONS

ANNALS OF FAMILY MEDICINE

Submit research findings and learn from other scholars who publish in the Annals of Family Medicine, a peer-reviewed journal for scientists, clinicians, policymakers, and the patients and communities they serve. Annals addresses practice-based research that bridges disciplinary boundaries in the delivery of patient-centered, prioritized, high-quality health care.

annfammed.org

BLOG

Join the conversation by sharing your ideas about how to improve family medicine education and offering a new perspective about the role of family medicine in the health care system.

blog.stfm.org

FAMILY MEDICINE

With your membership, you receive a subscription to Family Medicine, an official peer-reviewed journal of the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine. Family Medicine publishes original research, systematic reviews, narrative essays, and policy analyses relevant to the discipline of family medicine, with a focus on primary care medical education, health workforce policy, and health services.

journals.stfm.org/familymedicine

MESSENGER NEWSLETTER

You'll get the latest updates on new products and services, conference submissions, registration deadlines, legislation updates, and accreditation changes in the STFM Messenger, the official news publication of the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine. This electronic publication is emailed to STFM members monthly.

stfm.org/messenger

PODCASTS

STFM podcasts feature interviews with family medicine leaders who share pivotal experiences that have led to opportunities for personal and professional growth.

stfm.org/podcasts and stfm.org/urmjam

PRIMER

Meet your scholarly activity requirements by submitting your work to Peer-Reviewed Reports in Medical Education Research (PRiMER). This online, peer-reviewed, open-access journal publishes small, rigorously designed original research briefs in medical education and health workforce policy, as well as learner research.

CONFERENCES

CONFERENCE ON MEDICAL STUDENT EDUCATION

February 8–11, 2024 • Atlanta

Get the skills and tools you need to prepare your medical students to lead and prosper in a new environment of patient care. Join us in New Orleans and learn how your colleagues are re-imagining family medicine education. Share your medical student education wisdom, learn new skills, gain new ideas, and be inspired! And most importantly, network, meet new colleagues, and reacquaint with old friends.

This conference is for anyone involved in the education of medical students. Bring your students, residents, and community preceptors and pass on the excitement for academic family medicine.

stfm.org/mse

ANNUAL SPRING CONFERENCE

May 4–8, 2024 • Los Angeles

Explore, learn, and grow at the nation's most energized networking forum for family medicine educators. Hundreds of educational and interactive workshops, seminars, lecture-discussions, papers, hot-topic special sessions, and poster presentations will be waiting for you! Find out how your peers are innovating to meet the new ACGME requirements, and learn new approaches for faculty development and competency-based education.

This conference is for learners, faculty, administrators, and department and program leaders.

stfm.org/annual

CONFERENCE ON PRACTICE & QUALITY IMPROVEMENT

September 15–17, 2024 • Denver, CO

STFM and the Medical College of Wisconsin have joined forces to incorporate crucial components of the Forum for Behavioral Science in Family Medicine into the Conference on Practice and Quality Improvement. Commencing with the 2024 conference, the Conference on Practice and Quality Improvement will provide supplementary content on behavioral science and integrated health. While the primary emphasis of the conference will continue to be on practice and quality improvement, we aim to involve more colleagues from the behavioral science field to enrich our content and foster enhanced interprofessional interactions.

CURRICULUM FOR TEACHING MEDICAL STUDENTS AND RESIDENTS

FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENCY CURRICULUM RESOURCE

Access more than 200 peer-reviewed, case-based presentations, quizzes, and facilitators' guides for family medicine education. The curriculum is organized by topic and is available through a paid subscription.

fammedrcr.org

NATIONAL CLERKSHIP CURRICULUM

Define and develop a more effective third-year clerkship with this online resource. The curriculum is organized into five sections:

- Principles of family medicine
- Core presentations for acute care
- Core presentations for chronic diseases
- Health promotion and disease prevention
- Role of family medicine

stfm.org/ncc

SMILES FOR LIFE ORAL HEALTH CURRICULUM

Ensure the integration of oral health and primary care with this online curriculum developed by the STFM Group on Oral Health. Each downloadable module includes a 45-minute presentation, annotated presenter notes, companion videos, an implementation guide, educational objectives, test questions, and a list of high-quality resources.

smilesforlifeoralhealth.org

RESIDENTS AS EDUCATORS CURRICULUM

This curricula can be used for didactic presentations to enhance residents' teaching skills. Each curriculum includes a PowerPoint presentation, facilitator's guide, and a quiz.

Topics include:

- Teaching
- Feedback
- Social and Emotional Learning
- Effective Presentations
- Evaluation in Learning

stfm.org/facultydevelopmentwebinars

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT HANDBOOK

Designed for family medicine residents and new physicians, this handbook is an inclusive resource for preparing for future practice. It outlines a range of practice models and the skills needed for each.

connect.stfm.org/practicemanagementhandbook/home

ADVOCACY CURRICULUM

Educate legislators on the value of family medicine and encourage them to support the expansion of a well-trained family medicine workforce with this free online course. The course provides skills and practical strategies for advocating at the local, state, and federal level. Modules include:

- Getting started in advocacy
- Prepare and make contact
- The one-pager
- The visit
- Maintaining the relationship
- Advocating within your health system

stfm.org/advocacycourse

SUB-INTERNSHIP CURRICULUM

The STFM Sub-Internship curriculum is for students considering family medicine as a specialty choice. The focus is on the tasks and activities an intern would perform across settings, through the lens and within the culture of family medicine.

stfm.org/subicurriculum

UNDERSTANDING HEALTH SYSTEMS

These online courses and resources were compiled and developed by an STFM task force to help faculty and residents understand how decisions are made in health systems and advocate for business-based solutions that incorporate the needs of medical education, family medicine, and health systems.

Topics include:

- Advocating within your health system
- Analyzing health systems data
- The business of medicine
- Systems and structure
- Health systems finance
- Educating residents and students about health systems

stfm.org/healthsystems

ADDICTION MEDICINE CURRICULUM

STFM's national curriculum includes 12 addiction medicine modules with interactive content, handouts, videos, supplemental resources, and assessments. The curriculum covers screening and treatment of a variety of disorders.

stfm.org/addictionmodules

STFM RESIDENT LEADERSHIP WEBINARS

The STFM Resident Leadership Webinar series was developed by the STFM Graduate Medical Education (GME) Committee to promote leadership development by family medicine residents.

stfm.org/resleadershipwebinars

TELEMEDICINE CURRICULUM

Give your learners the knowledge and skills they need to conduct effective, patient-centered telemedicine visits. New resources include guidance to help teaching clinicians integrate telemedicine topics into courses, clerkships, and residency curricula and national telemedicine curriculum for students and family medicine residents. The telemedicine curriculum is divided into five asynchronous modules:

- Module 1: Intro to Telehealth
- Module 2: The Telehealth Encounter
- Module 3: Requirements for Telehealth
- Module 4: Access and Equity in Telehealth
- Module 5: Future of Telehealth

stfm.org/telemedicinecurriculum

PRECEPTOR RECRUITMENT AND RETENTION RESOURCES

TEACHING PHYSICIAN

Teaching Physician is a comprehensive, web-based resource that brings point-of-need instruction to preceptors in the form of videos, tips, answers to frequently asked questions, and links to in-depth information on precepting topics. Teaching Physician helps medical schools and residency programs recruit, train, and retain community preceptors and meet accreditation requirements for faculty development.

teachingphysician.org

CLERKSHIP ONBOARDING RESOURCES

Standardize the onboarding of students and reduce the administrative burden on community faculty (preceptors). Resources include:

- Online modules for students on:
  - How to Write a High-Quality Note in the Electronic Medical Record
  - How to Perform Medication Reconciliation
  - Motivational Interviewing: a Structured Approach to Behavior Change
- A student passport that provides preceptors with basic information about the student's training and objectives for the current rotation
- Tips for students on "How to Be Awesome in an Ambulatory Clinical Rotation"

stfm.org/clerkshiponboarding

ABFM PRECEPTING PI TOOLKIT

Recognize and reward preceptors by offering ABFM continuing certification credit for improvement in teaching.

stfm.org/abfmpitoolkit

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES FOR FACULTY

STFM RESOURCE LIBRARY

Save time on curriculum development with access to teaching, research, and point-of-care resources uploaded by thousands of family medicine educators. The shared, online library contains:

- Conference presentations
- Curriculum
- Digital images
- Audio and video files
- Standardized patient cases
- Forms, policies, and guidelines

resourcelibrary.stfm.org

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION, AND ACCESSIBILITY RESOURCES

STFM condemns and denounces discriminatory and racist acts and calls on all members of the family medicine community to speak out against inequality and systemic racism. Resources in the areas of antiracism, health equity, and underrepresented in medicine (URM) leadership are continually developed and aggregated in this centralized location for STFM member use.

stfm.org/AntiracismResources

RESIDENCY ACCREDITATION TOOLKIT

This combination of STFM resources helps new residency programs understand and meet accreditation requirements and prepares faculty to provide quality education to residents.

stfm.org/resources/residencyaccreditationtoolkit

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE BASICS MICROSITE

This site is a compilation of teaching and clinical care resources for new and seasoned behavioral health/family systems educators, and includes curriculum, patient care resources, key articles, books, evaluation tools, and presentations.

connect.stfm.org/behavioralsciencebasics

RESOURCES FOR REDUCING MENTAL HEALTH STIGMA

Questions on state licensing applications and those used for hospital, medical group, and health plan credentialing should not deter physicians, faculty, residents, and students from getting the care they need. Use these resources to learn more and advocate for change.

stfm.org/mentalhealthstigma

RESOURCES FOR HOLISTIC & INCLUSIVE RESIDENCY RECRUITMENT

Increasing the diversity in residency programs requires intentional planning for each step of recruitment. Use these resources to learn about evidence-based practices in holistic review of applications as well as methods for reducing bias in the residency interview process.

stfm.org/IncreasingDiversityinResidencies

COMPETENCY-BASED MEDICAL EDUCATION TOOLKIT FOR RESIDENCY PROGRAMS

The ACGME Family Medicine Program Requirements that went into effect in July 2023 require programs to ensure residents demonstrate competence and the ABFM now requires program directors attest to resident competence. An STFM task force has created a new toolkit to help family medicine residency programs implement competency-based medical education (CBME). The toolkit includes steps on getting started with CBME, a template for resident Individualized Learning Plans, information about the Core Outcomes of Family Medicine, and mapping of the Core Outcomes to ACGME sub-competencies.

stfm.org/cbmetoolkit

FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENCY LEARNING NETWORK OPPORTUNITIES

The new ACGME Family Medicine Program Requirements encourage programs to participate in learning collaboratives/networks. Throughout 2024, STFM will be developing resources and offering training to:

- Educate and engage residency programs not currently participating in learning networks
- Provide infrastructure and support to new and/or transitioning residency learning networks
- Create online resources to support learning networks
- Develop leaders of residency learning networks

stfm.org/residencylearningnetworks

GLOBAL HEALTH CURRICULUM

This toolkit is intended to be a guide for developing the Global Health curriculum for a family medicine residency program. This can be useful whether a program is reviewing an existing curriculum or creating a new one.

stfm.org/globalhealthtoolkit

CAREER DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

RESIDENCY FACULTY FUNDAMENTALS CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Completely updated in 2023, this certificate program includes 14 self-led courses and assignments to provide foundational training for residency faculty, and covers:

- The structure and requirements of residency education
- How to be an effective and efficient faculty member
- The nuts and bolts of curriculum development and teaching
- Strategies for assessment, feedback, and remediation of residents

stfm.org/rff

POINT-OF-CARE ULTRASOUND (POCUS) EDUCATOR'S CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

"Coming 2024"

The yearlong STFM FM Point-of-Care Ultrasound (POCUS) Educator's Certificate Program will train family medicine residency faculty to serve as their program's POCUS champion with the skills to train family medicine residents how to effectively use POCUS. Participants in the certificate program will benefit from:

- A POCUS curriculum tailored for family medicine faculty
- Robust in-person and virtual workshops
- A series of online modules on targeted topics
- Image review with feedback by experienced faculty
- Mentor/mentee small group sessions to discuss POCUS
- A final assessment with both written and in-person skills exams

stfm.org/pocus

FELLOWSHIP

BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE / FAMILY SYSTEMS EDUCATOR FELLOWSHIP

Grow professionally with this competitive, yearlong fellowship for family medicine faculty who have responsibility for coordinating or teaching the behavioral science/family systems curriculum. The Behavioral Science/Family Systems Educator Fellowship will help you:

- Build a personalized professional development plan
- Integrate behavioral science and family systems core principles into the practice of family medicine
- Plan, create, and present a scholarly project at a national conference
- Grow professionally through strong mentoring relationships with seasoned behavioral science/family systems educators and physicians

stfm.org/bfef

CERA FELLOWSHIP

The CERA Fellowship provides one faculty member a yearlong experience with the CERA Steering Committee. Through this part-time fellowship, faculty receive mentorship and training to lay the groundwork to be a future scholarly leader.

stfm.org/cerafellowship

EMERGING LEADERS FELLOWSHIP

This fellowship provides training, tools, and support for new faculty and those transitioning to leadership roles.

- Learn critical leadership skills
- Lead a team in a project and present on your leadership experience
- Get connected to family medicine leaders who will share tips on motivating others and handling difficult people and situations

stfm.org/emergingleaders

LEADERSHIP THROUGH SCHOLARSHIP FELLOWSHIP

This yearlong fellowship offers training and mentorship for early-career underrepresented in medicine (URM) faculty. Fellows will learn to:

- Identify methods to research a question and analyze data
- Assess the quality of existing literature
- Identify and address the disparities of the minority tax
- Write, present, and publish scholarly products
- Pursue promotion and tenure opportunities at their institution
- Build a personalized path to academic leadership

stfm.org/leadershipscholarship

MEDICAL EDITING FELLOWSHIP

Experience a yearlong fellowship with the editorial and publishing teams at Family Medicine. Receive coaching and hands-on experience to improve skills in writing, reviewing, and editing scientific papers. Fellows:

- Learn the characteristics and value of well-written research papers and narrative essays, and practice evaluating submissions
- Experience the manuscript submission process and become an expert in using the journal's editorial software
- Select peer reviewers, follow up on reviews, and write professional decision letters

stfm.org/medicaleditingfellow

MEDICAL STUDENT EDUCATORS DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE

Learn the skills needed to advance your career in medical student education. Learning opportunities include:

- Developing curriculum
- Evaluating students
- Dealing with challenging learners
- Recruiting and maintaining preceptor networks
- Directing a course
- Providing career advice to students
- Submitting a scholarly project
- Balancing life and work

stfm.org/leadingchange

FACULTY SKILLS COURSE

Pursue professional development and jump-start your faculty career with the fundamental skills you need to succeed in academics. The Faculty Skills Course provides training in time management, incorporating learners into your clinical workflow, and writing for academic publication. Each module in this self-directed course includes video interviews, interactive activities, readings, and self-paced assignments.

stfm.org/facultyskillscourse

INTRO TO MEDICAL STUDENT EDUCATION COURSE

Advance your career as a medical school faculty member with this self-directed online course. The course provides the nuts and bolts of medical student education, including how to get started advising medical students, how to provide high quality assessment and evaluation, the basics of LCME and COCA requirements, and tips for supporting students in difficulty. Each interactive module includes interviews, readings, and self-paced assignments.

stfm.org/mededintrocouse

URM LEADERSHIP PATHWAYS IN ACADEMIC MEDICINE

This free, interactive course includes recorded advice from experienced faculty and assignments that will help you build your leadership skills. You'll learn to set career goals, project your leadership voice, build your professional network, and identify opportunities for career advancement.

stfm.org/urmlleadership

ADVOCACY COURSE

Take STFM's free Advocacy Course and learn to educate legislators on the value of family medicine, and encourage them to support expansion of a well-trained family medicine workforce. This course has been taken by more than 3,000 family medicine educators and residents, and the updated version includes a new module on state and local advocacy.

stfm.org/advocacycourse

WELLNESS COURSE

Wellness is a critical part of preventing physician burnout and maintaining quality patient care. This course, featuring Catherine Florio Pipas, MD, MPH and Mark Greenawald, MD, will provide you with strategies to develop and maintain your personal wellness.

stfm.org/wellness

GIVING FEEDBACK COURSE

Giving feedback is a critical part of teaching future family physicians, but giving consistent, quality feedback can sometimes be challenging. This online course will introduce you to the principles of giving quality feedback and then take you to the next level by showing you when to give feedback, where, and what models you can use.

stfm.org/givingfeedback

FACULTY FOR TOMORROW WEBINARS

This free webinar series provides fundamental knowledge and skills that new faculty and residents as educators need to thrive in a career in academic family medicine.

stfm.org/facultydevelopmentwebinars

STFM WEBINARS

Take a look at STFM's webinars on key skills for faculty and ways to use member resources. Develop the knowledge you need to thrive in your career in academic family medicine. Click the link below to view webinar recordings and resources.

URM SCHOLARSHIP WEBINARS

This free webinar series, developed by the Underrepresented in Medicine Initiative, with funding by the ABFM Foundation, is created to increase the percentage of URM students, residents, and faculty who have the skills to produce scholarly research.

stfm.org/URiFMwebinars

STFM NEW FACULTY SCHOLARS SCHOLARSHIP WEBINARS

The STFM New Faculty Scholars Scholarship Webinar series was developed as part of the STFM Foundation New Faculty Scholars Program, which develops leadership and scholarship skills in a cohort of early career faculty. The webinars were originally presented directly to the New Faculty Scholars, but the entire series is now available to the STFM membership for free.

stfm.org/nfswebinars

ADDITIONAL FACULTY DEVELOPMENT

RESIDENCY LEARNING NETWORKS LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Gain knowledge and skills to lead a residency learning network. Topics include:

- Learning collaborative models and definitions
- Effective leadership
- Change management
- Defining and measuring outcomes
- Facilitation: recruitment, creating agendas, role assignments, collaborative communication, documenting findings, etc.
- Accessing resources
- Securing funding

stfm.org/LearningNetworkLeadershipTraining

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT DELIVERED

Meet ACGME and/or LCME requirements, eliminate travel, and provide CME opportunities with a customized faculty development workshop at your location. Interactive methods are used to engage your faculty and promote evidence-based teaching principles, while helping your program define actionable next steps. Each workshop includes a follow-up consultation with your program director or department chair. Pay one fee and invite faculty and preceptors.

stfm.org/fdd

FACULTY FOR TOMORROW WORKSHOP May 4, 2024 • Los Angeles

Acquire the knowledge and skills to succeed in academic medicine, and get inspired by personal stories from family medicine leaders during this full-day preconference workshop for residents and fellows interested in teaching family medicine. The workshop, sponsored by the STFM Foundation, includes breakout sessions on teaching skills and career negotiations, a career planning panel, and a leadership in medicine session.

stfm.org/annual

VIRTUAL COACHING PROGRAM

STFM members can connect and learn from colleagues in all career stages in the areas of scholarship, career development, leadership, teaching, wellness, and community engagement.

SCHOLARSHIPS, GRANTS AND AWARDS

SCHOLARSHIPS

FACULTY FOR TOMORROW RESIDENT SCHOLARSHIP

The STFM Foundation supports scholarships to cover registration expenses for residents to attend the full-day Faculty for Tomorrow Preconference Workshop at the STFM Annual Spring Conference.

stfm.org/facultyfortomorrow

H. WINTER GRIFFITH RESIDENT SCHOLARSHIP FOR EXCELLENCE IN PRACTICE IMPROVEMENT AND PATIENT-CENTERED CARE

This award recognizes excellence in practice improvement involving outstanding patient interaction, education, care, and outcomes by a resident or resident team in the family medicine medical home setting.

stfm.org/hwintergriffith

NEW FACULTY ADVOCACY SCHOLARSHIP

Five annual scholarships provide hands-on advocacy experience for new faculty through the Family Medicine Advocacy Summit in Washington, DC. Applicants must be members of STFM and fulfill all eligibility requirements.

stfm.org/newfacultyadvocacy

NEW FACULTY SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Designed to be a catalyst for developing future STFM and academic family medicine leaders, this program offers a year-long experience filled with coaching, educational opportunities, and valuable networking interactions. The program funds registration and up to $1,000 in travel/hotel expenses to the STFM Annual Spring Conference through the STFM Foundation. New Faculty Scholars must be STFM members who have served at least 2 years but no more than 4 years as full-time faculty and who exhibit outstanding leadership potential.

stfm.org/newfacultyscholars

STFM FOUNDATION STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

Medical students who have an interest in family medicine and potential for an academic career can be nominated to be an STFM Foundation Student Scholar. Scholars will present their posters at the STFM Conference on Medical Student Education. The STFM Foundation will support scholarships of $500 each, to cover travel expenses for attending the STFM Conference on Medical Student Education and free conference registration. American Academy of Family Physicians will support one target school student with up to $1,000 in travel and lodging.

stfm.org/studentscholarship

GRANTS

STFM PROJECT FUN

This fund encourages STFM Collaboratives and Special Project Teams to plan, develop, implement, evaluate, and disseminate findings from educationally-related scholarly projects. The outcomes of the project should benefit members, the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine, and the discipline of family medicine. The project should also provide students, residents and new faculty an opportunity to participate in a significant way in a scholarly project that exposes them to STFM.

stfm.org/awardsscholarships/grants/stfmprojectfund/

AWARDS

- CERA BEST PAPER AWARD
- CURTIS G. HAMES RESEARCH AWARD
- STFM DIVERSITY AWARD
- STFM EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION AWARD
- FPM AWARD FOR PRACTICE IMPROVEMENT
- F. MARIAN BISHOP LEADERSHIP AWARD
- STFM INNOVATIVE PROGRAM AWARD
- LYNN AND JOAN CARMICHAEL STFM RECOGNITION AWARD
- STFM RESEARCH PAPER OF THE YEAR AWARD
